FALL GAP MEETING AT HERSHEY MUSEUM

Betty Wells, a member of the "Paper Doll Artists Guild" and of GAP, will present a program on Paper Dolls at the next GAP meeting scheduled for October 11, 1992, 1 P.M. at the Hershey Museum, Hershey, PA.

A hobby since childhood, designing "Paper Dolls" has remained fascinating to Betty. She studied drawing and making dolls, while regularly publishing short articles about antique dolls, toys and paper dolls of her own design. The response to those articles was so overwhelming that she was asked to do a monthly column for "Women's Comfort" magazine that continued for five years. Since that time her work has been published in "The Doll Reader," "Teddy Bear and Friends" and the "Teddy Review." Betty returned to drawing and designing "Paper Dolls" professionally about 20 years ago.

"Better Homes and Gardens" featured her primitive style paper dolls and ornaments in a Christmas issue in 1987. "Victoria" magazine profiled her work in 1992. Shackman Publishing Company has published several of Betty's animal paper dolls which have appeared as embossed sheets, die cut paper toys, gift tags, gift bags and Christmas ornaments. Her work has been well received in the European market. Betty's art has been included at the William Penn Museum during artists by invitation only showings and she taught paper cutting at the museum from 1984 through 1987.

Please plan to attend the GAP meeting and learn more about paper dolls.

GAP WINTER MEETING SCHEDULED FOR WINTERTHUR

Bernie and Faye DuPlessis of Wilmington, DE, members of the Winterthur Guild as well as GAP, have negotiated a meeting and program to be held at the Winterthur Museum on February 13, 1993.

Faye has suggested lunch in the museum's cafeteria between 12 and 1 with our regular meeting to follow. The museum staff has indicated that they have some August Eduart silhouettes in addition to other papercuttings to show us. In addition, there is a self-guided tour of the museum available for $6 per person. If you have never visited this wonderful place it is definitely worth the investment!

More details will be available at the October meeting.

MEMBER NEWS

The August 1992 issue of Early American Life magazine included on page 8, an article by Diana Ross McCain, titled Silhouettes.

Pictured on page 25 are Sandra Gilpin's painted paper cutting "Living Tree" and cuttings by Marilyn Diener and Nancy Shelly. Other artists also included in the "200 Best Craftsmen" issue are Paul Beal, Pamela Dalton, Elizabeth Lee Gaul, Ellen Mischo and Sharon Schaich. Sukey Harris is listed under "Painted Decoration."

INVITATION FROM THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF WOMEN IN THE ARTS

The National Museum of Women in the Arts is seeking handcrafted ornaments made by women for its Second Annual Holiday Tree to be placed in the entrance lobby of the museum during the month of December. Our goal is to showcase women's art work executed in a wide range of media and style and to locate prototype ornament designs for potential sale in the Museum Shop.

All ornaments submitted should be made by hand and measure no more than six inches in diameter. Deadline for entries is December 1, 1992. Due to the time and expense, NMWA does not anticipate returning ornaments not selected and in the spirit of the season will distribute them to the local shelters for women and children.

Send entries together with name and address and description of ornament and technique used on a 3x5 file card to: NMWA, Holiday Tree 1992, 1250 New York Avenue, Washington, DC. 20005-3920

Thank you for your interest. Patricia Ehrlich, Docent

Ed Note: Irene Graessle, a GAP member, submitted a scherenschnitte ornament to the NMWA last year which hung on the museum's Christmas tree.

FOURTH GAP SHOW OPENS AUGUST 11

"SHEAR VARIETY," the traveling GAP show, was hung by Paul Beal and Neil Haring on August 10 at the Bedford Arts Center, 342 South Richard St., Bedford, PA 15522. The show, which runs there through September 19, includes 21 pieces in a wide variety of styles by Guild members from across the country.

The second location on the exhibit's tour is larger; Paul reports that there will be room for a few more pieces when the show opens there on October 25. If you have not submitted a piece and had meant to or now have time to do something special, please directly send your piece to Paul Beal RD 2, Box 353, Friedens, PA 15541, (814) 267-4276. All other exhibit rules, published in the last FirstCut apply to work submitted at this time. Overall size is limited to 20 by 24 inches.

Cordially invited, participating artists and GAP members to the Somerset Premier Opening Reception, Dressler Center, October 25 from 2 to 4 P.M. sponsored by Somerset Artists Guild. Refreshments will be served.

DEADLINES APPROACHING FOR UPCOMING SHOW

Please be aware that submission deadline for the upcoming DALLAS BIBLICAL ARTS MUSEUM CHRISTMAS EXHIBITION is almost upon us. Slides are due by August 15 to be juried for the show. Send 3-4 slides to Dan Paulos, 302 Chama St., N.E., Albuquerque, NM 87108.

MAY MEETING WELL ATTENDED

The Guild of American Papercutters, met on Sunday, May 3, 1992 at the home of Sigrid Gottmann-Werdnik in Bethesda, Maryland. There were 23 members present. Sigrid treated the group to her collection of papercuttings which she has acquired over a period of thirty years and a display of cuttings by contemporary German papercutters. The exhibit was fascinating and well received by the members present as was the delicious luncheon. Thank you Sigrid and Wolfgang for opening your home to the GAP.

CORRESPONDENCE FROM GAP MEMBERS

I think it is wonderful that you have a guild and thanks so much for inviting me. I am a self-taught silhouetter and know I will benefit from our guild. Are there any members in my area, West Central Missouri or Southeast Kansas? I don't do craft shows much anymore...but I enjoy cutting even if I don't get paid. Thanks again, I'm looking forward to the newsletter.

(Martha Harbaugh, 210 E. Bodine, Clinton, Mo 64745)

I enjoy the organization, even though I am several thousand miles removed from its heart. I used the mailing list to call several members to discuss Swiss Papercutters, and they were very helpful. Have you any information on the Swiss Papercutter's Guild? At last report, they seemed reluctant to process applications and answer inquiries from Guild members, so I hesitate to forward fees for membership. Also, do any of the Guild's members have information on the location of Austrian Papercutters or collections of works there? I hope to visit Europe soon and want to talk to papercutters and view as much work as possible.

Thank you so much for the fine coverage of my art in the September FirstCut. How exciting to see it there. Two corrections: the scene with candles is titled "Candleshine", and is based on the traditional Swedish carol for the Festival of Lights. Also, I use traditional Scherenschnitte (or silhouette) paper, rather than fadeless, which is used only for children's classes. Fortunately, I have a good (but old) supply of Scherenschnitte paper, because I have been unable to find it, even in Berlin, where my last package came from.

I have been busy teaching papercutting in the schools—more than a thousand children since October! I'm including photos of their work. Except for the Polish "color-added" cuts and the Mexican banner-style cuttings (simplified for young children), no drawing was done. Children simply follow the step-by-step directions as I indicate them on the board and illustrate with my scissors. Even blind children take part in the classes. We'll soon have a generation of papercutters here in the Northwest. Good, because, until recently, I've been as lonely as the Maytag Repairman!

Thanks for your help and the opportunity for membership.
(Mary Jane McIntee, 2085 Church, N.E., Salem, Oregon)

I am so pleased that you (Dick Harris) helped start this guild. I am looking forward to attending a meeting as soon as possible. I will be asking to include your address in the newsletter of H.S.E.A.D. (Historical Society of Early American Decoration) also known as the Brazier Guild. (Glenna Pearson)

*****

I was sorry that I had to miss the gathering of papersnippers at the Harris' house early this spring. I really wanted to attend and yet I would have felt out of place since I've only cut a few designs from the common commercial books. In my off work time I mostly play music which "cuts" into time I could use for papercutting. Here are suggestions to help the beginners in our GAP area.

1. Have an informal inexpensive workshop (or monthly series) on cutting and designing for true beginners and just beyond.
2. List the meeting dates two or three advanced dates in each newsletter. As you folks do it now you can be reasonably sure that I'll never be able to schedule an attendance at a GAP meeting.

Although I've not yet done this, I have a goal of combining simple papercutting with story telling and music performance (not to be done all simultaneously). I guess I'm short on resources because I am self directed and motivated when I've acquired an adequate base of knowledge. (A.J. Bashore II, Shamokin, PA)

*****

I enjoy being a member of GAP. I read the newsletter from cover to cover and back again. I would like to attend another meeting some time, the two I did attend were very enjoyable, and everyone was so nice to me. I wish I had more time to be more active, maybe some day. (Gail Nushaw)

*****

Thank you very much for the exhibit catalogue. I enjoyed it very much. I wish I lived close enough to see each works of all members. Thank you for showing my work on the catalogue. Looking forward to seeing the next newsletter.
(Aki Sogabe)

To all the papercutters [in the Guild of American Papercutters]:

I am Andries Drost. I took over the administration of the members and the finances of our society from Frouk Hendricks. You wrote her a letter with 260 Dutch Guilders to receive the "Knip-Pers" during two years, 1991 and 1992. I got the letter with the money, but I am sorry I didn't answer your letter.

At first something about our society of papercutting. We have more than 1,000 members. We like as well as members who make easy cuttings but also members making very difficult and artful cuttings. Next year we celebrate our second lustral feast. We hope we will see several of our foreign members in 1993. You will get at the same time all informations.

I have the intentions to write a column for our members abroad in our "Knip-Pers." Can you write me and tell something about your guild in America, when possible with copies of papercuttings to illustrate. In our "Knip-Pers" of March there was an article about four Swiss papercutters.

I should like to know if you can understand the Dutch words. Perhaps we can make a summary in English. Will you tell me? Then we can intensify our communication. Also we will do it with our groups of papercutters in the Netherlands. Looking out for your Letter.

EUROPEAN TOUR

As this issue of "First Cut" goes to press, plans for the GAP European Tour are coming alive. Mark your calendars and start saving now! Tentative dates are April 20 - May 2.

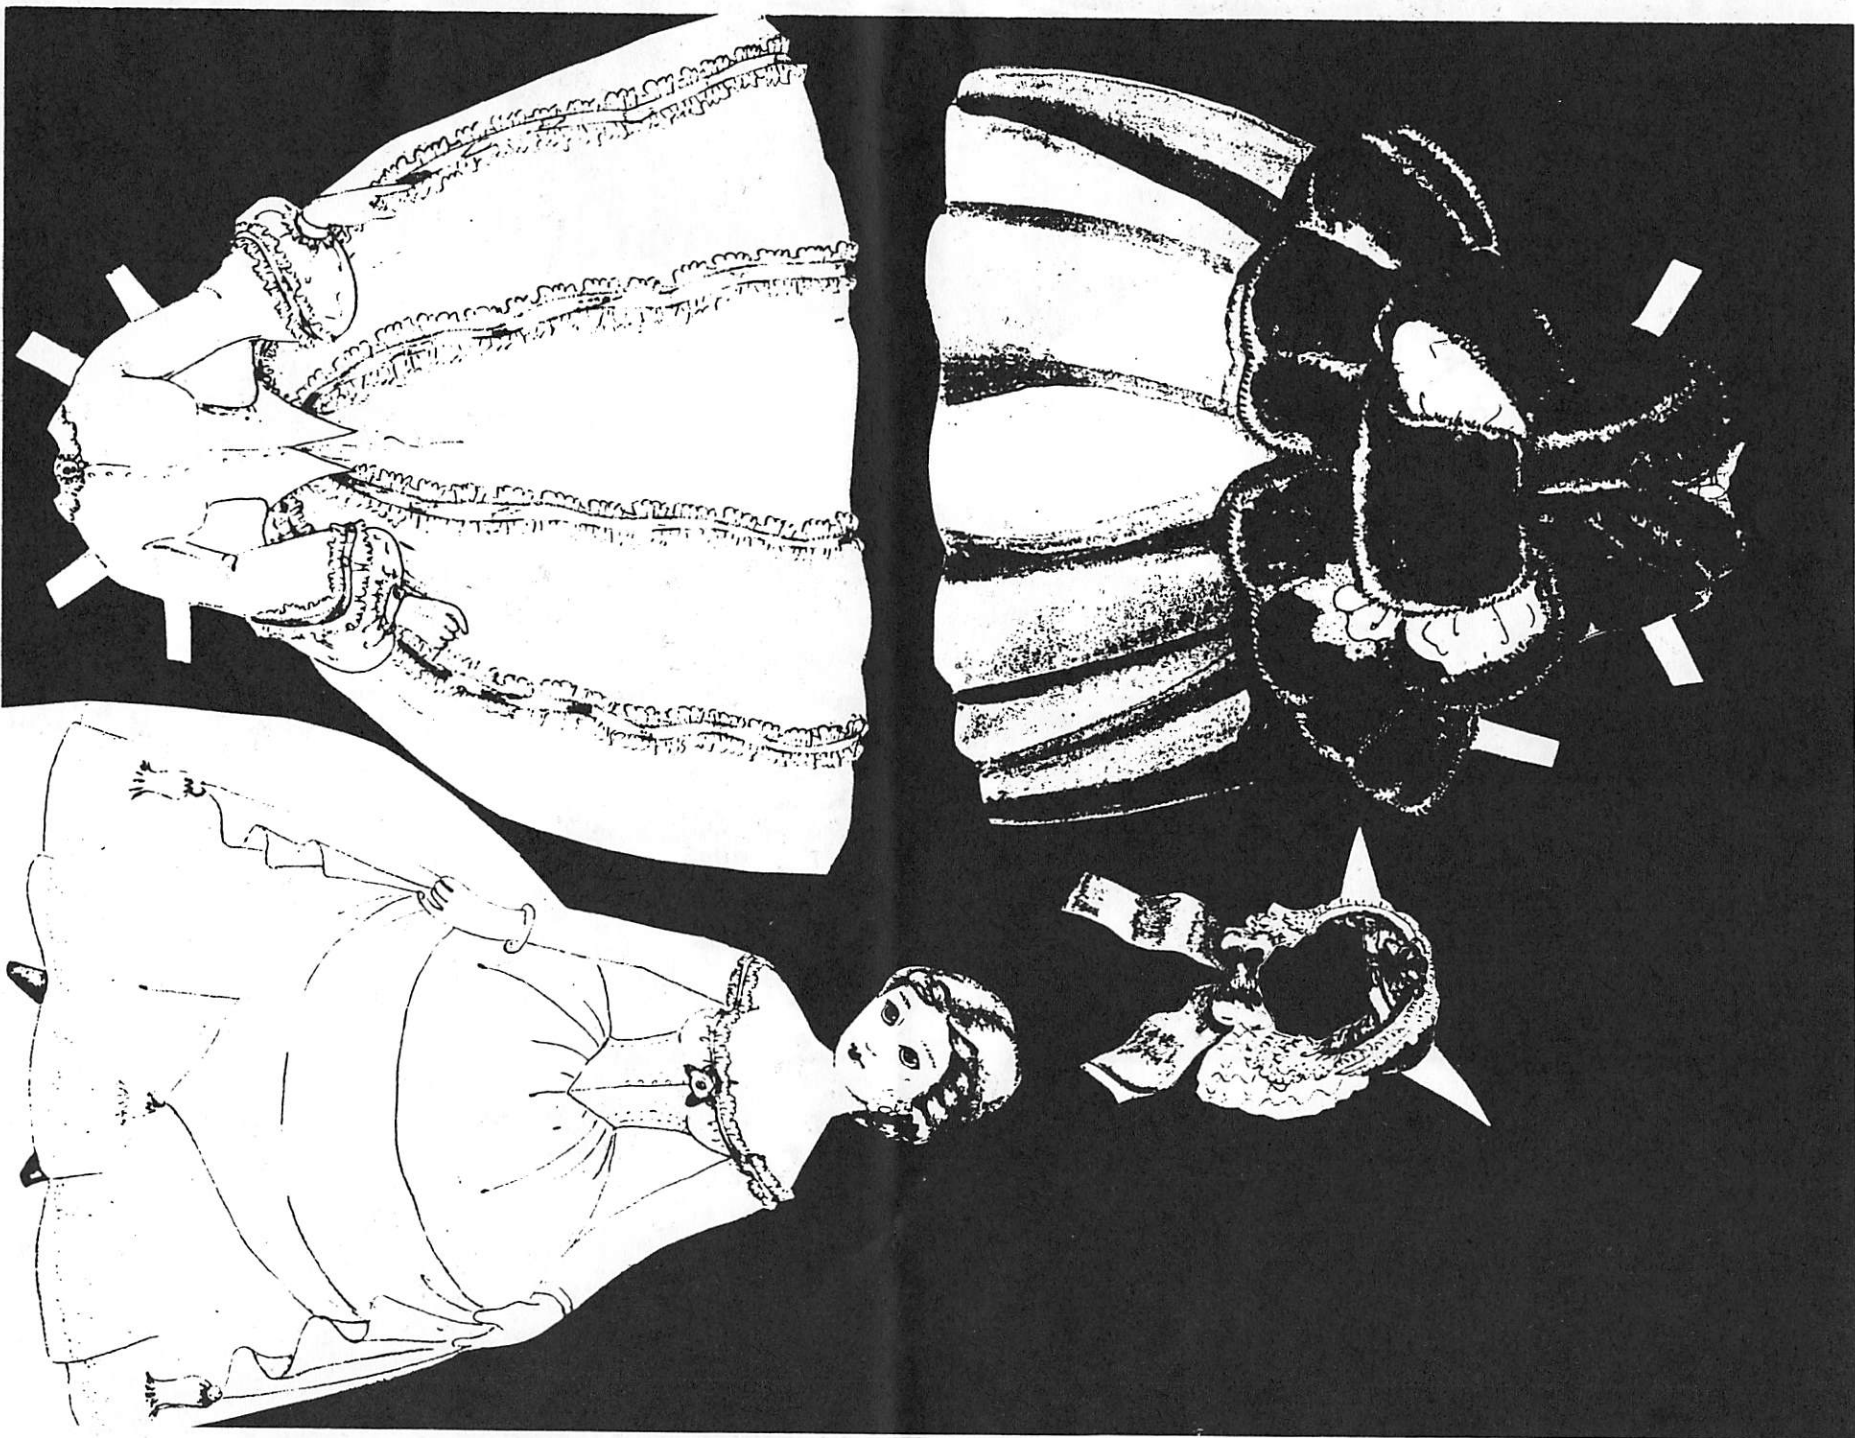

Tour will begin in Eden, Netherlands to coincide with the 1,000+ member Dutch Papercutters 10th anniversary. April 24, 1993 is their special "Contact Day" where cutters gather to show and tell about their work. Tables will be available for foreign visitors to exhibit and perhaps sell. Start your cutting now! Many books related to papercutting will be for sale. We will also tour the open air museum in Holland and see some tulips too. Other stops will include Germany and Switzerland where we will meet with prominent Papercutters and tour museums with collections of papercuttings. In Denmark we will see cuttings by Hans Christian Anderson.

To keep costs down to less than $50.00 per night we will stay in "hostel" type facilities. Round trip plane ticket will cost approximately $600 departing from Kennedy Airport with $100 deposit by December 1, 1992. Balance 45 days before departure. One approach to flight ticket purchase is for each traveler to make their own reservations to and from Europe. This would allow for maximum flexibility if some would wish to stay longer or arrive earlier than the proposed dates. We would all come together for the tour. The cost of this tour per person will be approximately $2,000 (+ or -).

By our next newsletter, these plans will gel and we will have more definite information and directions. So that we can begin to make lodging and bussing reservations, and send exact details to our European contacts. Those planning or hoping to go on this tour should send an post card immediately to Donna Little, 273 Kings Highway, Clarksboro, NJ 08020.
